

BEESWAX

100 % NATURAL WAX

DESCRIPTION

Beeswax is a natural wax secreted by the bee and used for the construction of the honeycomb.

Beeswax contains myricyl palmitate, cerotic acid and some hydrocarbons.

The natural wax is yellow and may be bleached by the action of sunlight or after treatment with oxidizing agents. This bleached wax is used in ointments, cosmetic creams, lipsticks, candle making etc.

SPECIFICATIONS

-ASPECT	off-white pastilles
- ODOUR	characteristic
-ACID VALUE (E.P)	17 - 24
- IODINE VALUE (E.P)	5 - 15
- SAPONIFICATION VALUE (E.P)	87 - 104
-ESTER VALUE (E.P)	70 - 80
- HUBLE RATIO (E.P)	3,3 - 4,3
-MELTING POINT (NF-T60-102)	61 - 65 °C
- DROP POINT	61 - 66 °C
-HYDROCARBONS	10,5 - 13,5 %